RE: WCAG 2.1 AA Accessibility Compliance Statement & Roadmap

To Whom It May Concern,

Thank you for your continued partnership and for your commitment to ensuring accessible digital learning environments for all students and educators. We appreciate the opportunity to provide documentation regarding the accessibility status of Book Creator as part of your review process related to the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) Title II rule requiring WCAG 2.1 Level AA compliance by April 24, 2026.

Accessibility Conformance Report (ACR) / VPAT

Book Creator maintains an Accessibility Conformance Report (ACR) using the latest VPAT Version 2.5 template, updated March 20, 2026. The full Accessibility Conformance Report is available online.

The report documents alignment with the following standards:

- Web Content Accessibility Guidelines WCAG 2.1 Level A and AA
- Web Content Accessibility Guidelines WCAG 2.2 Level A and AA
- Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act
- EN 301 549 European ICT Accessibility Standard

The report includes testing across multiple platforms using assistive technologies including JAWS, NVDA, Narrator, VoiceOver, and ChromeVox, as well as automated accessibility testing tools.

Accessibility Approach

Accessibility is a core design principle for Book Creator. The platform supports multiple accessibility needs and is designed using Universal Design for Learning (UDL) principles to support diverse learners.

Known exceptions and remediation in progress

Accessibility work is ongoing. Current areas being addressed include items such as Language of Parts and Resize Text, which were identified through our internal audit process. Where our VPAT indicates any criteria as “Partially Supports,” we have used those findings to develop our accessibility roadmap.
